

ABOUT UKSPA WEBSITE RESOURCES FOR UKSPA MEMBERS

The UKSPA website at www.ukspa.org.uk provides a vast amount of information about UKSPA, our members and the wider Science, Innovation and Incubation Sector.

New resources are now available to Members and this factsheet provides additional information on these new areas

Members Area

UKSPA is a membership organisation and we make available a wealth of information on our public website.

However members also receive access to additional added value services including access to Statistics and Data, UKSPA Good Practice Guides and Factsheets alongside a significant range of other resources.

The Registration Process is free, quick and easy for Members. Please complete the Registration Form below and create a new account - you will receive an e-mail confirming that this has been received.

You will be sent your user name and password once your UKSPA membership has been verified. You will then be able to change your password to one of your own choice.

Resources

The Resources are divided into three areas to simplify navigation:

Information and Resource Centre

This area provides access to key resources for Science Park and similar environments. Members can now download individual chapters from UKSPA's definitive guide to "Planning, Development and Operation of Science Parks, UKSPA Data and Good Practice Guides and wide-ranging resources on every aspect of Science Park development.

UKSPA Incubation Resources

Incubation Resources includes a series of UKSPA Factsheets, a comprehensive library of Incubation Resources in six dedicated areas and UKSPA Good Practice Guides including:

- The Business Incubator Managers Handbook
- Identifying Incubation Best Practice
- Best Practice in Business Incubation and
- Innovation Led Incubation: a practical guide for Science Park Managers and others commissioning, developing and managing Innovation Centre's and their Incubators.

"This is a developing area of the UKSPA website and will continue to be reviewed and improved. It would be appreciated if members could contact UKSPA with additional suggestions, copies of relevant material or links to material for possible inclusion"

Incubation Matters: Resources

The core areas of the Incubation Resource section are in six sections:

- Incubation Good Practice
- Innovation & Entrepreneurship
- Incubation Policies & Practices
- Universities and Incubation
- Social Enterprises with a section on
- General Resources.

The overall aim is to provide quick access to key external resources to supplement UKSPA factsheets which include

- Business Incubation Processes
- Business Development Resources
- Financial Sustainability and Planning
- Marketing your Business Incubation Environment
- Establishing and Maintaining Dealflow
- License Agreement - typical content ... and much more.

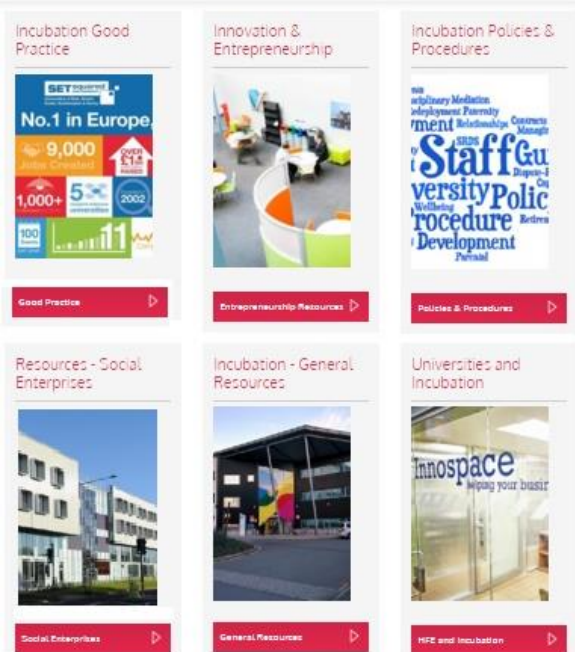

Information and Resources Area

A growing area of the site is the Resources area on Science Park – development and performance.

This is a developing area of the UKSPA website and will continue to be reviewed and improved. It would be appreciated if members could contact UKSPA with additional suggestions, copies of relevant material or links to material for possible inclusion.

Current sections are:

- Science Parks – General
- Science Parks – University Collaboration
- Science Parks – Clustering
- Science Parks – Impact
- Science Parks – International

Magazine and Directory Websites

There are two other stand-alone website which deliver information to members as well as the public:

Annual Directory

www.ukspa-directory.co.uk is the page turning website that delivers UKSPA's Annual Directory. In addition there is an archive of the last five issues. The e-book allows quick searching, printing and saving of content as pdf's.

Innovation into Success

www.scienceparks.co.uk provides online access to the Association's journal "Innovation into Success" and an archive of issues dating back to 2012.

Editing your own Information

Members can also edit their own website profile and add their own news, recruitment and property availability. Contact info@ukspa.org.uk for information.
