- Technology Parks
- Technology Incubators
- Affiliated professional service providers

UKSPA: members

Developing the best Innovation Environments:

UKSPA member locations have a crucial role to play in supporting innovative businesses. Companies choose to locate their R&D and other innovation activities in places offering the right premises, a flexible and supportive business environment, and co-location with synergetic businesses and service companies.

UKSPA members create and manage the right environments to support the formation and growth of knowledge based businesses.

Become a part of the UK's national association of Science parks, incubators and innovation centres.

UKSPA: partnerships

UKSPA has an ambitious programme of activity in 2018/2019. Do contact info@ukspa.org.uk if you would like to explore any of the opportunities described.

We would be pleased to discuss your own ideas on how you can deliver added value to these or new UKSPA services and activities.

Partnership opportunities include:

- Data partner: supporting UKSPA surveys , data collection and analysis
- Digital partner: enhancing UKSPA connectivity and our ambitious digital strategy
- Research partner: supporting UKSPA research reports and discussion papers
- Gold, Silver and Bronze partners: contact info@ukspa.org.uk

UKSPA: events

Each year UKSPA hosts three two-day events, with a national conference held every two of three years.

Our regular events are hosted by an UKSPA member and are attended by around 150 delegates. The major, national events can attract up to 500 delegates, exhibitors and speakers.

“Very much enjoyed the conference, some thought provoking sessions and made some very useful contacts”

“I thought it was very worthwhile and really enjoyed the entire programme. It was well organised, fun, educational and completely inspiring”

What members say:

“An excellent range of speakers and I’m hugely impressed”.

“I always find the UKSPA meetings to be useful and interesting”.

“I really enjoyed the event and would recommend the conference to future delegates”.

“Well run, well organised, good content and speakers who know their content.”

UKSPA is a membership organisation proudly representing innovative, high tech, knowledge based environments including science parks, incubators and innovation centres.

Our members make a significant contribution to sustainable, long term economic growth in the UK.

We provide opportunities to network, share good practice, and work together to drive local, regional and national industry strategy.
