

UKSPA/University of Nottingham Innovation Park

26 - 27 January 2017

Optional Study Tours	Thursday 26 January (11.00 -12.00) Meet in Reception – Jubilee Conference Centre
1	Ingenuity Centre – Matt Hutton (Bond Bryan)
3	GSK Carbon Neutral Laboratory – Prof. Peter Licence (GSK)

Optional Study Tour	Friday 27 January (11.00 -12.00) – Please choose one from the following:
2	Aerospace Technology Building – Mike Winfield (UoN)
Unfortunately, for operational reasons beyond our control, the Tour of the Aerospace Technology Building has been rescheduled to 1.15pm on Friday 27 January.

Thursday 26 January 2017

From 12.00	Lunch and Registration - Jubilee Conference Centre
1.00	Introduction – Welcome from UKSPA	David Hardman, Chairman, UKSPA
1.05	Welcome to University of Nottingham and UNIP	Chris Jagger, Chief Estates & Facilities Officer, University of Nottingham and Chairman, UNIP Management Ltd
1.20	UNIP: A Brownfield Regeneration Initiative	Dr Mark Tock, Operations Director, UNIP Management Ltd
1.45	Enterprise@Nottingham	Dr Susan Huxtable, Director of Intellectual Property Management and Commercialisation, UoN Simon McMaster Founding Scientist/Chief Science Officer Footfalls & Heartbeats
2.00	The Tenant Community	Paul Bilan – Playchimp - University of Nottingham Innovation Park Jonathan English – Skeleton - University of Nottingham Innovation Park Prof. Neil Hopkinson – Xaar – Nottingham Science Park
2.30	Innovation, Incubation and Acceleration: The national picture	Chris Haley Head of Startups and New Technology Research, NESTA
3.00	Networking Break

3.30 – 4.30 Parallel Sessions	1. Innovation, Incubation and Acceleration: The local picture. Chaired by Mike Herd Follow on Discussion and Case Studies: Chris Haley (NESTA) Graham Hewson (Imperial White City Incubator) Paul Hughes (Allia Future Business Centres)	2. Science, Innovation and Industrial Strategy – National Policies and Local Delivery Chaired by David Hardman Jen Rae (Interim Head of Policy, NESTA) Brigid Feeny, Assistant Director, Innovation - Business Environment, Department for Business, Energy and Industrial Strategy
4.30	University Enterprise Zones: Lessons from the Pilot Programmes	Liam Sutton, Director of Knowledge Exchange, University of Bradford Joe Spencer, Director and Academic Lead for Sensor City (University of Liverpool)
5.15	End of Day One Sessions
7.30	Innes England and Barker Brettell Networking Reception
8.00	Event Dinner
10.00	Informal Networking

Friday 27 January 2017

9.15	Introduction/Welcome - David Hardman
9.15	D2N2 LEP and Nottingham Science Park	Councillor Nick McDonald - Portfolio holder for Business, Growth and Transport, Nottingham City Council Lynsey Allen, Senior Investment Manager, D2N2 LEP
9.45	UK Space Incubation	Helen Roberts, UK Regional Growth Manager, UK Space Agency Colin Baldwin, UK Space Gateway Programme Manager, UK Space Agency Mark Tock, Operations Director, UNIP Management Ltd

10.15 – 11.15 Parallel sessions	3. Science and Innovation Audits: Lessons from the Midlands Engine. Chair - Terry Spall (Mira-Horiba) Dr Pam Waddell, Director, Birmingham Science City Luke Delahunty, Director, SQW Professor Herve Morvan, Assistant Pro Vice Chancellor for KE and Impact, University of Nottingham	4. Nottingham's BioCity: New Models of Collaboration and Investment Chair – Glenn Crocker (BioCity) Anthony Everitt, ADE Regeneration Robert Jones, Adduccere Stephen Moore, Wilmott Dixon
11.15 -11.45	Coffee and Networking Break
11.45 -12.00	Feedback from Parallel Sessions 1 Mike Herd 2 Patrick Bonnett (National Innovation Centre for Ageing) 3 Terry Spall 4 Glenn Crocker
12.00 – 12.40	Panel Discussion: Where to next for the Science and Innovation Sector?
12.40 – 12.45	Closing Remarks: Professor Herve Morvan, Assistant Pro Vice Chancellor for KE and Impact, University of Nottingham
12.45 – 1.30	Lunch

Hotel and Location:

The event will be hosted by the University of Nottingham Innovation Park on Thursday 26th January/Friday 27th January 2017.

All sessions and the Thursday evening Reception/Networking Dinner will be held at the Jubilee Conference Centre, a 95 bed hotel and conference facility overlooking the lake on the Jubilee Campus operated by De Vere Hotels.

To book rooms at the Jubilee Conference Centre at the dedicated rate of £95.00 (Thursday) please phone: 0115 823 2294. Rooms are also available on Wednesday evening (£65.00).